ENGLISH HOME LANGUAGE: PAPER II

MARKING GUIDELINES

Time: 3 hours

100 marks

These marking guidelines are prepared for use by examiners and sub-examiners, all of whom are required to attend a standardisation meeting to ensure that the guidelines are consistently interpreted and applied in the marking of candidates' scripts.

The IEB will not enter into any discussions or correspondence about any marking guidelines. It is acknowledged that there may be different views about some matters of emphasis or detail in the guidelines. It is also recognised that, without the benefit of attendance at a standardisation meeting, there may be different interpretations of the application of the marking guidelines.

QUESTION 1

SHAKESPEARE MINI ESSAY (5 + 25)

This rubric serves to guide the marking process. Markers should be aware that the mark for the one page plan need not correspond with the mark for the essay. A candidate may, for example, achieve a 5 for the plan, but only a level 5 for the essay. (5 + 16 = 21).

CANDIDATES SHOULD BE AWARE THAT THEY WILL BE PENALISED FOR EXCEEDING LENGTH REQUIREMENTS AND AN ESSAY OVER 500 WORDS WILL ONLY BE MARKED UP TO 500 WORDS.

- The scope of the mini essay requires candidates to think about concerns and issues that evolve out of the selected text. Detailed knowledge of the text and an engagement with the richness of the issues required.
- Candidates will be required to show a one page plan.
- The ceiling in terms of length is 450 words. Should the candidate exceed the length, only up to 500 words shall be read. The rest shall be ignored. The response to the question requires a succinct essay where the candidate is called upon to select pertinent information to the question and produce a tightly structured discussion on the given topic. PERTINENT referencing to the text is required.
- Candidates are to supply a word count at the end of the essay.

SECTION B TRANSACTIONAL WRITING

ASSESSMENT RUBRIC: (10 + 10)

This rubric serves to guide the marking process. Markers should be aware that the mark for the PURPOSE element need not correspond with the mark for 'language and format'. A candidate may, for example, achieve a level 7 for 'purpose', but only a level 5 for 'language and format'. (e.g. 8 + 6 = 14)

		PURPOSE	LANGUAGE AND FORMAT
LEVEL	MARK	DESCRIPTOR	DESCRIPTOR
7	10 9 8	The candidate can write original and coherent texts, skilfully adapting to different audiences, purposes, formats and contexts. A clear, mature personal style and voice is evident. Candidates make an intelligent statement that is original.	Highly sophisticated use of language conventions and excellent understanding of register required. Sophisticated and carefully constructed syntax.
6	7.5 7	The candidate is able to write original and coherent texts, can adapt to different audiences, purposes, formats and contexts although not completely sustained. There is evidence of personal style and voice and a thorough engagement with the question, although some depth may be lacking.	Competent, at times impressive use of language conventions . Very good understanding of register, although there may be some flaws. Very few grammar or spelling errors. Format mostly correct.
5	6.5 6	The candidate is able to write with some degree of originality and attempts to adapt to different audiences, purposes, formats and contexts, although some areas jar with the question requirements. There is limited evidence of personal style and voice. An average response.	Average response; pedestrian, but not seriously flawed. Mostly accurate use of language conventions and sound understanding of register. Minor errors. Format mostly correct.
4	5.5 5	The candidate is generally able to write with some originality and tries to take into account different audiences, purposes, formats and contexts, although this is not entirely successful. Limited personal style; little or no personal voice.	The candidate tries to apply conventions, but the product is flawed. Marred with errors. An attempt at correct format, but one or two errors. Limited understanding of appropriate register.
3	4.5 4	An attempt is made to produce original texts which take into account different audiences, purposes, formats and contexts, but this is not always done correctly. Style is sometimes unoriginal and involves 'borrowing' from other work.	Flawed product which only vaguely follows format. Poor spelling and grammar. Meaning is not always clear. Register is usually at odds with the demands of the task.
2	3.5 3	Limited originality and inadequate attention to purpose, context and format. Generally no personal style. Poor response; flawed. Candidate may have misunderstood the demands of the question.	Very flawed product. Marred with errors. No understanding of appropriate register. Some attempt at format albeit incorrect.
1	2.5 3	Little or no evidence of originality or cohesion; no attention to purpose, context or format. A completely flawed response.	No evidence of language conventions; inability to use correct register; communication marred; short or rambling. No idea of format.
